CoreNet Global Confirms Officers and Board Members for 2011 - 2012

Coca-Cola Refreshments' Matt Fanoë Takes Helm as Board Chair

Jim Scannell of The Travelers Named Chair-Elect

ATLANTA, GA (3 May 2011, 12 PM Eastern) – Matthew J. Fanoë, Vice President, Real Estate, Coca-Cola Refreshments, Inc., is the new Chairman of CoreNet Global's Board of Directors.

The 7,000-member organization of corporate real estate (CRE) and workplace executives formalized Fanoë's chairmanship at this week's CoreNet Global Summit in Chicago. Fanoë's term begins with the summit's conclusion on May 3. He succeeds Lee Utke, MCR, Director of Global Corporate Real Estate for Whirlpool Corporation. Utke will remain on the CoreNet Board as Past Chairman.

"The global economy continues to improve, but significant challenges remain for our members and the corporate real estate industry," said Angela Cain, CEO of CoreNet Global. "Lee's guidance through a time of transition has been instrumental, an essential element in CoreNet Global's sustained progress and growth. With Matt, we again gain the insight, experience and corporate real estate leadership associated with yet another of the world's leading brands as we continue to support members' efforts to shape the evolving workplace and economic development."

Jim Scannell, Senior Vice President, Administrative Services, The Travelers Companies, Inc. was named Chair-Elect and will succeed Fanoë in 2012.

Dino S. Piccini, BCCR, President, Global Corporate Services at DTZ, will continue to serve on the Board as Treasurer.
