Week of 15 June 2020

What's the biggest work/COVID-19 challenge you're facing this week?

The inability to travel. I manage transactions across the country.

What's the current situation in your city relative to opening non-essential businesses?

Washington State is preparing to enter phase 2. This would open additional non-essential businesses.

How do you think COVID-19 will bring about permanent changes in corporate real estate and workplace strategy?

I believe Change Management will be an instrumental part of a company's reentry back into the workplace. Companies will have to work to reassure employees that their workplace is free of an invisible problem. There will have to be physical changes in the workplace, new routines incorporated but probably most important employees feeling (mentally) comfortable with the idea of reentering the workplace.
